

2006 National History Day in Wisconsin

National Theme: "Taking a Stand in History—People, Ideas, Events"

American Labor History Award

* sponsored by the Wisconsin Labor History Society *

Regional and Statewide Events—Junior & Senior Winners

Northern Great Lakes Regional

(held in Eagle River on Sat., March 4)

Austin Peterson and Kyler Heimbruch

(St. Paul Lutheran School, Manawa), $50 Junior Prize, for their group exhibit, "Diving for Freedom: The Manitowoc Shipbuilding Company Workers—Taking a Stand for the U.S. Navy"

Callie Bernier and Roannah Vogel-Tlusty* (Northland Pines High School, Eagle River), $50 Senior Prize, for their group exhibit, "Lowell Girls Spin Wheels by Day, Lowell Women Fight for Rights by Night"

Northwestern Regional

(held in Eau Claire on Wed., March 15)

Meghan Marquardt* (Northstar Middle School, Eau Claire), $50 Junior Prize, for her individual performance, "A Girl Named Rosie"

Matthew Muza* (Regis High School, Eau Claire), $50 Senior Prize, for his individual performance, "The Baldwin File" [about the labor movement background of ACLU's co-founder, Roger N. Baldwin]

Western Regional

(held in La Crosse on Wed., March 22)

Abigail Hindson, Emily Tope, and Kendra Sprain

(School of Technology and the Arts II, La Crosse), $50 Junior Prize, for their group exhibit, "Cesar Chavez: Taking a Stand for the Rights of Migrant Farm Workers"

Audrey Reigel, and Willy White* (Bangor High School), $50 Senior Prize, for their group web site, "The Steel Strike of 1919"

South Central Regional

(held in Madison on Sat., March 25)

Andrew Argall* (EAGLE School, Madison), $50 Junior Prize, for his individual exhibit, "The Bay View Tragedy: Changing Labor Forever" [1st Honorable Mention, Junior Individual Exhibits]

[N.B. Due to lack of qualifying entries, no Senior Prize was given at this regional]

* Selected to go on to statewide finals

 Recognized at statewide finals (at rank given)

Southeastern Regional

(held in Milwaukee on Sat., April 1)

William Meyer* (McKinley Middle School, Kenosha), $50 Junior Prize, for his paper,

"Harry Bridges and the Stand for American Workers" [4th Honorable Mention, Junior Papers]

Eleanor Hagerman* (University School of Milwaukee), $50 Senior Prize, for her individual documentary video, "Lewis Hine: Taking a Stand Against Child Labor" [2nd Honorable Mention, Senior Documentaries]

Northeastern Regional

(held in Green Bay on Sat., April 8)

Philip Nelson* (Parkview Middle School, Ashwaubenon), $50 Junior Prize, for his paper, "The Hortonville Strike: Binding Arbitration"
Cassandra Bauknecht, Kayla Gilman, and Kristin Widmer (Wilson Junior High School, Manitowoc), $50 Senior Prize, for their group exhibit, "Welcome to WWII: The Waking of Working Women"

Central Regional

(held in Stevens Point on Sun., April 9)

Aaron Apfelbeck* (D.C. Everest Junior High School, Weston), $50 Junior Prize, for her [sic] individual exhibit, "The Ludlow Massacre"
Haley Behnke* (D.C. Everest Senior High School, Weston), $50 Senior Prize, for her individual web site, "Mother Jones: Taking a Stand for Workers" [Medalist, Senior Web Sites (1 of only 2 medals given in this category)]

State Event

(held in Madison on Sat., April 29)

Andrew Argall (EAGLE School, Madison), $100 Junior Prize, for his individual exhibit, "The Bay View Tragedy: Changing Labor Forever"

Eleanor Hagerman (University School of Milwaukee), $100 Senior Prize, for her individual documentary video, "Lewis Hine: Taking a Stand Against Child Labor"